

2008

NHS Health Scotland make CHANGE books available for free in response to letters from the Parents' Group.

We said they had a duty under the Disability Discrimination Act to provide information that we could understand

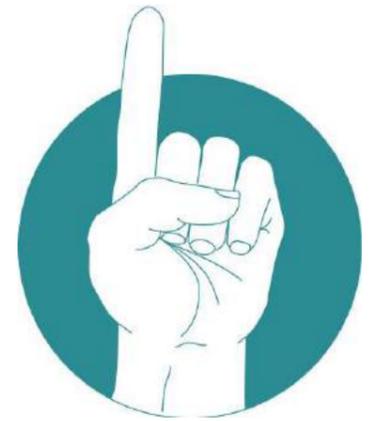

Two parents contribute to SCLD book of Parents' stories and speak at the launch in Parliament

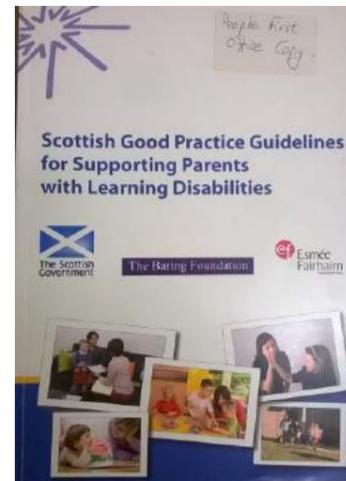

Training for Parentline call-takers

2009

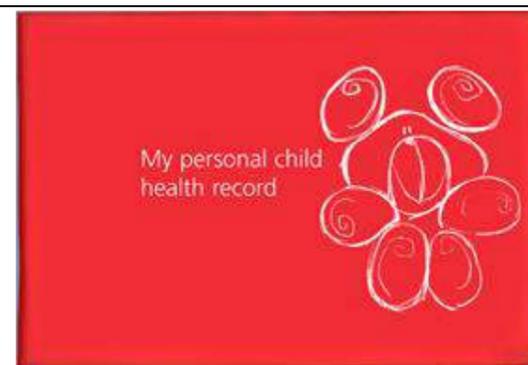

Parents help write the Scottish Good Practice Guidelines on supporting parents with learning disabilities

Parents participate in the Scottish Parenting Network

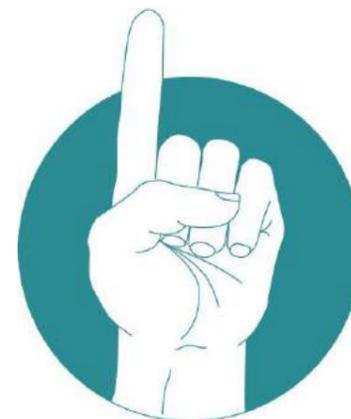

Parents take part in a consultation on the Red Book

Run training for social work students at Edinburgh University and workers at Stenhouse Early Years Centre

2010

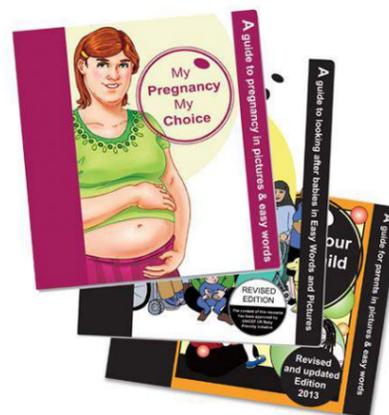

We are asked by NHS Health Scotland to do part of the evaluation of the CHANGE resources.

Parents work as researchers and interview other parents.

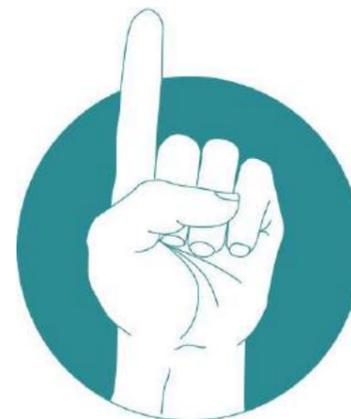

Parents sit on the evaluation steering group.

We set up a Parents' Group in Glasgow

Parents meet with NHS 24 and talk about accessibility

2011

NHS Health Scotland
publish our report on the
CHANGE evaluation

Parents give speeches and run workshops at SCLD inclusive research
conference

Parents run training for social work students at
Stirling University

2012

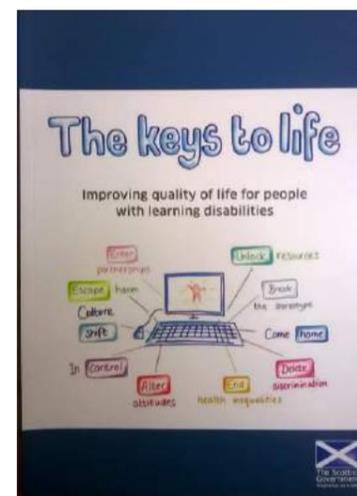

We make a DVD for parents about Children's Hearings with SCLD and Enable.

Parents meet with MSPs to give evidence to the enquiry into whether children should be taken into care

Parents give input to the Scottish Government Keys to Life Learning Disability Strategy.

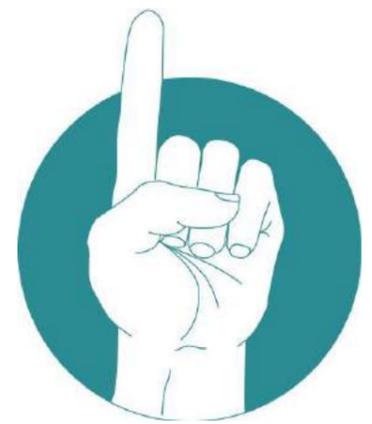

Our suggestions are put in the report as recommendation 38

We do lots of training including:

- Children First
- Social workers in Edinburgh and East Lothian
- Social work students

2013

We help write the Scottish Government training pack on disability and child protection.

3 parents tell their stories on video for the pack.

We run a Round Table on Supported Parenting with SCLD

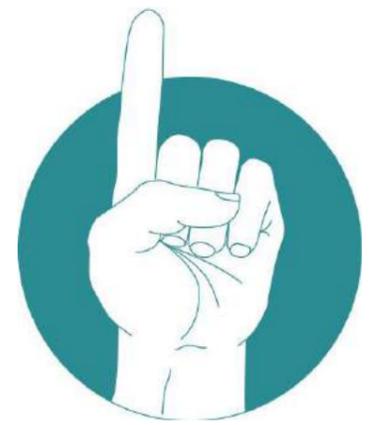

Parents meet the Care Commission about collecting statistics about parents

Training:
Orkney
West Dunbartonshire
Social work students

2014

We make a DVD for parents about starting primary school with SCLD

Parents take part in meetings of the Early Identification Group

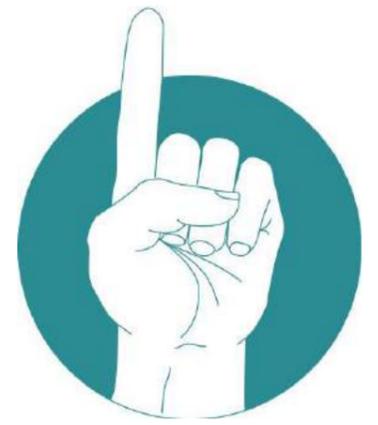

We help write the Guide to Supported Parenting.

We run workshops at the Inclusion Institute and at a Keys to Life Conference in Dundee

2015

We write an easy read guide to Wellbeing together with The Alliance

We help make a DVD about GIRFEC

Parents take part in the Scottish Government consultation on Part 12 of the Children and Young People Act 2014

Parents take part in seminars gathering evidence for the Scottish Delivery Plan on UN Convention on rights of persons with disabilities

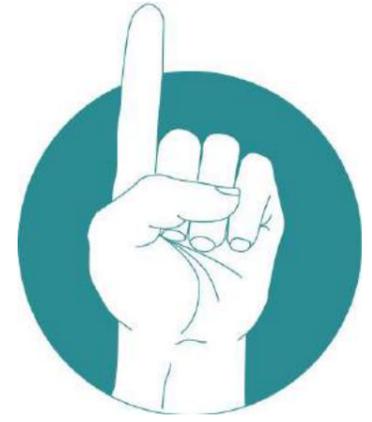

We run training for midwives in partnership with the Royal College of Midwives.

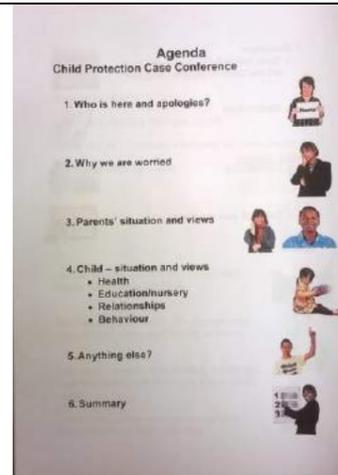

We train workers and volunteers at Homelink and Family Solutions

2016

We work with Edinburgh Council review team to create easy read agendas and letters for child protection meetings

We meet with parents from Girvan and the Highlands

We run training for:

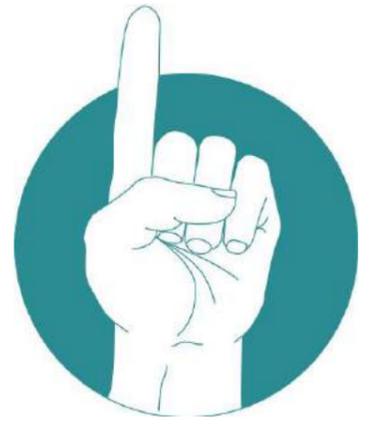

- Children's Hearing Scotland trainers
- midwives in Glasgow and Lothian
- midwifery students at University of the West of Scotland

We work with SCRA to write easy read letters about children's hearings

PLANS

To train health visitors

To finish the easy read child's plan and create easy read report templates

To set up a national forum for parents in Scotland

To make an easy read guide to parenting teenagers

To train workers in what supported parenting means

To push for joint funding agreements so it is easier for parents to get the support we need

